- This price list applies to regular practice times and for one-time bookings made within the next 21 days.
- When booking a session, all group members must be University of Helsinki/Aalto University/Hanken/University of the Arts students in order to be granted a discount. If there are participants not belonging to these groups, UniSport has the right to charge standard prices. This rule does not apply to badminton, for which your training partner does not need a group affiliation.
- Fees for one-time bookings must be paid in advance at a UniSport customer service point or online.
- If facilities are available, you may also make one-time bookings beyond the 21-days limit. In such cases, all customers must pay at least the standard price, regardless of their affiliation.
- Reservations cannot be made for business activities.
