All rights reserved.

The price list applies to temporary regular reservation agreements, which are also subject to separate terms of agreement.

Business activities cannot be conducted during regular reservation times.

All participants using the regular reservation must be members of the University of Helsinki, Hanken or Aalto University customer groups to be able to purchase a regular reservation at the discounted prices for these institutions. If other customers participate on the regular reservations, UniSport has the right to charge the normal price. Badminton has an exception regarding the customer groups: the player accompanying the university member may belong to any customer group.

All reservations within the agreement period will be invoiced, including unused ones.
